

KIMICHI SCHOOL COUNCIL GOVERNING DOCUMENT.

This document is intended to set out the rights and responsibilities of the school council and was drawn up by the council members. It should be reviewed and agreed upon by the Governing Body of the school every year.

At the first school council meeting of the school year, a Chairperson (most likely School Captain) must be elected by the members of the council. His or her term will last the duration of the school year. The council should be made up of Heads of House, School Vice Captain and School Captain. All pupils are invited to be at the school council meetings.

Staff are allowed admittance to school council meetings to observe, guide and suggest only. The school council has the power to change, amend and introduce school rules. These must be discussed, voted on and minuted. Any changes must then be reflected in school media.

School policies are not changeable or amendable by anyone other than the school Governing body. Rules must not impact on the day to day teaching, learning and ethos of the school.

Council members are not allowed to put forward or request inappropriate or foolish suggestions. Anybody doing so will potentially lose their voice on the council. Meetings must be headed by the chair, minuted and taken note of in the School council book.

Any punishments meted out by the council must be adhered to. The Council is a safe place for pupils to bring any concerns they might have in their day to day attendance at school, no matter how large or small.
